Support Group Meeting Tuesday, October 16 The Lion and The Lamb 7:00 - 9:00 PM

Theme: Motivating boys (and girls) who'd rather be doing anything else, but school. Why do some children do all their school work (and more), while others will do anything to avoid school? If you are a mom of a "top of the refrigerator" type of learner, come to the support group meeting and hear how other mothers have motivated their children. Remember, no matter what you are facing, someone else has walked a similar path. Come and get the encouragement you need to keep going! Veteran moms, come prepared to offer encouragement and share the hope that it will get better.

For more information please contact Audrey Britt, 846-3767.

October Field Trip Natural Bridge Caverns, Wax Museum and Bridge

Friday, October 26, 2007 10:00AM—3:00 PM Cost: $10/Person

Get the full Natural Bridge experience in one field trip. And last, but certainly not least, you and your family will take in the breathtaking views of Natural Bridge as you navigate the trail that leads you directly under its splendor and majesty.

Please meet at 8:15 AM at the Starbucks in Boonesboro Shopping Center. We will leave at 8:30 AM SHARP so that we can arrive at Natural Bridge in order to take care of tickets in a timely manner. Coming in November!
Recitation Night
Sunday, November 18
4:00—5:30 PM

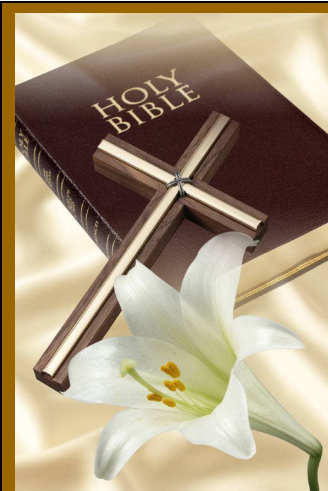

The Hangar, Grace Church

Because we educate our children at home, sometimes it is hard to find opportunities for our children to practice public speaking or performing their various talents in front of a live audience. Recitation Night is designed to give your children that chance. Recitation Night focuses on individual performances. Is your child memorizing a play/poem/passage of scripture this fall? This is their opportunity to make all that work worthwhile by performing on Recitation Night. Does your child play a musical instrument or sing? Plan to share a favorite song with us on November 18. Now is the time to plan so you will be ready. November 18 is right around the corner.

Check out our website for more information as it becomes available and for information on registering to participate.
